City of Tahlequah Office of the Mayor

- Whereas, 2013 will be the 35th anniversary of the musical “Annie” that follows the world’s most famous orphan and her journey from a “hard knock life” to the promises of a bright “tomorrow”; and
- Whereas, Tahlequah Middle School, Tahlequah High School Band Boosters, and Tahlequah Middle School Pom Team work together to promote the arts and provide outstanding opportunities for the students of Tahlequah Public Schools; and
- Whereas, three events this week will support these organizations so they can continue to promote the arts in the school system, including Annie’s Soup Kitchen at the First Baptist Church on November 5th to help support the THS Orange Express Band’s trip to a NYC performance, the Annie Fun Run (Escape from the Orphanage) will be November 6th to help support the TMS’s bid to Nationals in Orlando, Florida; and the TMS Pom team will have concessions at the performance on November 8th and ticket proceeds for the performance on November 9th to help support the TMS Pom Team, and; and
- Whereas, the first public performance of “Annie” will be at the THS Performing Arts Center at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, November 8th, with the final performance on Saturday, November 9th.

Now, therefore, I, Jason Nichols, with the power vested in me as Mayor of the City of Tahlequah, do hereby proclaim the week of November 3-9, 2013, as in the City of Tahlequah, and urge the citizens of our community to support these fundraising events to help promote the arts and provide outstanding opportunities for our students in the Tahlequah Public School system.

“Annie Week”

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the City of Tahlequah to be affixed this 31st day of October 2013.
